IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF FULTON COUNTY STATE OF GEORGIA

HECTOR GARCIA,
 Plaintiff,

v.
 MIKE REZI,
 also known as MICHAEL REZI, and
 CAROLINA REZI,
 also known as CAROLINA ROSINI

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION
 FILE NO. 2022CV367879

Jury trial demanded

VERIFIED COMPLAINT<sup>1</sup>

Hector Garcia ("Plaintiff" or "Garcia") brings this verified action against Defendants as set forth below.

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Garcia is a resident of Georgia.
2. Defendant Mike Rezi, also known as Michael Rezi, is a resident of, and may be served with process at, 4220 Harris Trail, N.W., Fulton County, Georgia 30327.
3. Defendant Carolina Rezi also known as Carolina Rosini, is a resident of, and may be served with process at, 4220 Harris Trail, N.W., Fulton County, Georgia 30327.

<sup>1</sup> Prior to bringing this action, Garcia in good faith offered Defendants to provisionally file this complaint under seal while demanding that Defendants continue to pay his guaranteed salary under an Employment Agreement (Sections 8 & 9) dated March 27, 2022 attached as Exhibit A hereto. The most recent installment of his guaranteed salary was due on July 15, 2022. By failing and refusing to make timely payment, Defendants materially breached the Employment Agreement. Said agreement contains a confidentiality provision (Section 10) in favor of Defendants. However, because Defendants' breach, Plaintiff is discharged from any arguable duty to file this action under seal. OCGA Sec. 13-4-22; Forest Commodity v. Lone Star Industries, 255 Ga. App. 244 (2002). In any case, the confidentiality clause does not require the filing under seal, and no circumstances warrant shielding this action from the public under Uniform Superior Court Rule-21. Moreover, pleadings are privileged under OCGA Sec. 51-5-8.

4. Upon information and belief, Mike and Carolina Rezi are husband and wife.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under Ga. Const. 1983, Art. VI, Sec. V,

Par. I

6. Venue is proper in this Court under Ga. Const. 1983, Art. VI, Sec. II, Paragraphs IV and VI.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

7. Plaintiff and Defendants entered into an employment agreement under a letter dated March 27, 2022 (the "Employment Contract"), a copy of which is attached hereto as EXHIBIT A.

8. After an interview and a trial period, Mr. Garcia officially began work as an "Estate Manager/Butler" for the Rezis on April 1, 2022.

9. Prior to or during his employment, the Rezis new that Mr. Garcia was gay.

10. Under the Employment Contract, Mr. Garcia earned $10,000 a month payable on the 15th and 30th day of each month. He was entitled to two weeks' paid vacation and five personal days. (See Sections 2 and 3 of the Employment Contract).

11. The Employment Contract contained a one-year salary guarantee of base pay if Employer terminated the contract without cause. (See Sections 8 and 10 of the Employment Contract).

12. During Mr. Garcia's employment, Mr. Rezi attempted to persuade him to reduce his compensation, which Mr. Garcia respectfully declined to do.

13. After Mr. Rezi's unsuccessful attempts to change the terms of the Employment Contract, Mr. Rezi began a pattern of increasingly overbearing demands on Mr. Garcia and disrespectful treatment of him.

14. On June 10, 2022 Mr. Garcia was overseeing the repair of a security gate at the Rezi's home while the Rezis were aware travelling.

15. Nevertheless, Mrs. Rezi was remotely monitoring the project with her phone through a camera security system in the home.

16. Evidently prompted by Mr. Rezi, she gratuitously accused Mr. Garcia of lying about whether he had left their home open and allowed gate repairmen to enter while he was taking lunch.

17. That same day, Mr. Garcia spoke by telephone with Mrs. Rezi. He clarified that the repairmen had entered the home in violation of his express instructions and through a broken sliding door. The conversation resolved the misunderstanding and concluded with a text message from Mrs. Rezi demonstrating her gratitude.

18. On Tuesday morning, June 14, 2022, Mr. Garcia arrived at the Rezis' home for a regular day of work. He began preparing breakfast for the family in the kitchen since the Rezis had returned from their travels.

19. Mr. Rezi entered the kitchen and angrily turned to Mr. Garcia accusing him of having raised his voice at Mrs. Rezi during their phone call on June 10, 2022.

20. Mr. Garcia politely denied that he had raised his voice at his wife and explained that he believed that the security gate incident had been resolved to everyone's satisfaction.

21. Mr. Rezi then exploded into an outrageous tirade, screaming at Mr. Garcia. Among other profoundly shocking and humiliating statements, he screamed at Mr. Garcia as quoted or words to the effect: "You're a fucking liar!" He continued: "All I [Mr. Rezi] want to hear from you [Mr. Garcia] is 'Yes, sir, no. sir. Yes, ma'am, No, ma'am.'" And "I want to see you [Mr. Garcia] on your knees licking the floor on which my wife, me, and my son walk." He then repeatedly called Mr. Garcia a “fucking liar,” “piece of shit,” and a “freaking faggot.” He told Mr. Garcia “to get the fuck out of my house!” and ordered Mr. Garcia to return a credit card and car keys. Mr. Garcia complied and left the property in shock, horror, and humiliation.

22. Mr. Garcia stood outside on the curb, called an Uber, and returned to his home. Mr. Garcia texted Mrs. Rezi to inform her of the firing.

23. After the outrageous and horrifying verbal assault by Mr. Rezi, no reasonable person would return to a place of employment to risk further shock and trauma from such abuse.

24. Upon information and belief, Mr. Rezi’s outrageous conduct was filmed by the extensive security camera system in the Rezis’ home. On June 18, 2022, Mr. Garcia’s counsel sent the Rezis a demand to preserve evidence. See copy of David Martin’s letter to the Rezis dated June 18, 2022 attached as EXHIBIT B.<sup>2</sup>

25. Following the letter from Mr. Garcia’s counsel, Mr. Rezi wrote to Mr. Garcia on June 21, 2022 and falsely characterized Mr. Garcia’s departure as an “absen[ce] from work from June 15-June 20, 2022 without leave” and asserted this a purported justification to terminate his employment “as of July 4, 2022.” Mr. Rezi asserted other pretexts about Mr. Garcia’s performance to show “cause” for terminating Mr. Garcia. A copy of Mr. Rezi’s letter dated June 21, 2022 is attached as EXHIBIT C.

26. Mr. Garcia has received treatment for mental and emotional trauma due to Mr. Rezi’s extreme and outrageous conduct.

27. After being fired, Plaintiff demanded that Defendants continue to make the guaranteed salary payments under the Employment Agreement.

28. Despite Plaintiff’s demand, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff his guaranteed salary.

<sup>2</sup> The date of outrageous event and firing was miswritten as “June 16, 2022.” All parties know that it occurred on June 14, 2022.

29. Defendants' failure to pay the guaranteed salary constitutes a material breach of the Employment Agreement and discharges Plaintiff from the performance of any duty of confidentiality under Section 10 of said agreement.<sup>3</sup> See OCGA Sec. 13-4-22.

COUNT I against Mike and Carolina Rezi – Breach of Contract

30. Plaintiff Garcia realleges and incorporates paragraph 1 through 29 as though fully set forth herein.

31. Because Mr. Garcia was terminated without cause, the Employment Contract requires that the Rezis continue to pay him his guaranteed base pay plus unused vacation and personal time through April 1, 2023, the end of the first anniversary date of the Employment Contract.

32. The amounts from July 15, 2022 due through April 1, 2023 are as follows: (a) $90,000, (b) $5,000 for two weeks' vacation pay, and (c) $1,643.83 for five days of personal time ($386.76 per day based on $120,000 yearly base pay divided by 365).

COUNT II against Mike Rezi – Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

33. Plaintiff Garcia realleges and incorporates paragraph 1 through 29 as though fully set forth herein.

34. Mr. Rezi's conduct on June 14, 2022 against Mr. Garcia was intentional or reckless, extreme, and outrageous. There is a causal connection between Mr. Rezi's wrongful conduct and Mr. Garcia's emotional distress, and his emotional distress is severe.

35. Moreover, Mr. Rezi's conduct was so outrageous in character, and so extreme in degree, as to go beyond all possible bounds of decency; and to be regarded as atrocious, and utterly intolerable in a civilized community.

<sup>3</sup> The Employment Agreement also refers to an "NDA," however, no such NDA was signed.

36. As the proximate cause of Mr. Rezi's conduct, Mr. Garcia suffered severe mental and emotional distress, anguish, and trauma.

37. Mr. Garcia has suffered general damages of no less than $300,000.

COUNT III against Mike Rezi – Assault

38. Plaintiff Garcia realleges and incorporates paragraph 1 through 29 as though fully set forth herein.

39. All the apparent circumstances, reasonably viewed on June 14, 2022, led Hector Garcia to reasonably apprehend a violent injury from the outrageous conduct of Mr. Rezi.

40. As a proximate cause of Mr. Rezi's conduct, Mr. Garcia suffered severe mental and emotional distress, anguish, and trauma.

41. Mr. Garcia has suffered general damages of no less than $300,000.

COUNT IV as to Mike Rezi – Tortious Misconduct

42. Mr. Garcia realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 29 as though fully set forth herein.

43. Mr. Garcia was an invitee of the Rezi home, and Mr. Rezi owed a duty to protect him from abusive language and conduct that is opprobrious and frightening.

44. Mr. Rezi's outrageous statements were willful and malicious and made with the intent to frighten and injure Mr. Garcia.

45. As a proximate result of Mr. Rezi's tortious misconduct, Mr. Garcia became upset, frightened, and agitated. Further, Mr. Garcia has lost sleep, has had difficulty concentrating, and suffered bouts of crying.

46. Mr. Garcia has suffered general damages of no less than $300,000.

COUNT V against Mike and Carolina Rezi for Count I and against Mr. Rezi for Counts II, III, and IV – Expenses of Litigation under O.C.G.A. Sec. 13-6-11

47. Plaintiff Garcia realleges and incorporates paragraph 1 through 29 as though fully set forth herein.

48. In contriving pretexts for cause to terminate Mr. Garcia's employment described in Count I, the Rezis acted in bad faith, have been stubbornly litigious, or have caused Plaintiff Garcia unnecessary trouble and expense, entitling him to expenses of litigation under O.C.G.A. Sec. 13-6-11.

49. For the willful, malicious, and abusive conduct described in Counts II, III, and IV, Mike Rezi acted in bad faith, has been stubbornly litigious, or has caused Plaintiff Garcia unnecessary trouble and expense, entitling him to expenses of litigation under O.C.G.A. Sec. 13-6-11.

COUNT VI against Mike Rezi - Punitive damages under OCGA Sec. 51-12-5.1

50. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 29 and 33 through 46.

51. Mike Rezi's conduct showed willful misconduct, malice, wantonness, oppression, or that entire want of care which would raise the presumption of conscious indifference to consequences.

52. Mike Rezi acted with specific intent to cause harm to Mr. Garcia, such that there is no limitation on the amount of a punitive damages award.

53. Alternatively, if the limitation of OCGA Sec. 51-12-5.1(f) applies, then Mr. Rezi is liable for punitive damages for the full statutory limit of $250,000.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Garcia demands a jury trial and prays that the Court enter judgment in his favor as follows:

1) under Count I against Mike and Carolina Rezi, $90,000 payable in equal installments of $5,000 on the 15th and 30th day of each month until April 1, 2023, plus $5,000 for vacation pay, and $1,643.83 for personal time,

- 2) under Counts II, III, and IV against Mike Rezi, the general damages of $300,000,
- 3) under Count V, against Mike and Carolina Rezi, for such sums for attorney fees and expenses as shown by the evidence at trial,
- 4) under Count VI, punitive damages in an amount determined by the enlightened conscience of the jury, and
- 5) such other and further relief as warranted by the law and the facts of this case.

Respectfully submitted, this 19th day of July 2022.

Mr. Garcia:

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that your employment with us as the house manager of our property located at 4220 Harris Trail NW, Atlanta, GA 30327 is being terminated for cause and will end as of July 4, 2022. In addition, you are hereby immediately relieved of your duties as house manager of the residence and directed to stay away from the residence. These decisions are not reversible.

Your employment as house manager is being terminated for, among other reasons, the following:

- On June 10, 2022, you were absent from the residence while contractors/workmen were present in the residence although the agreement concerning your employment requires you to oversee vendors/contractors/cleaning crews working at the residence.
